

WOMAN RECALLS BURCH'S ERRAND ABOUT INSANITY

From Contending Agree to "Army Unification" Came to Los Angeles to Assist Mrs. Obenchain in Trouble, Claim

LOS ANGELES, May 2.—Testimony that Arthur C. Burch, accused murderer of J. Belmont Kennedy, came to Los Angeles for the purpose of assisting "in any way he could" Mrs. Kennedy's sweetheart, and a vigorous attempt on the part of the defense to impeach the prosecution's witness, C. S. Sumner, on cross-examination, were the outstanding features of Burch's trial Monday.

TALKED ON TRAIN.

Mrs. J. M. Warren testified that she met Burch on the train several days before Kennedy was shot, and that Burch told her he was on his way to help "in any way he could," a very good friend of his school days who was in trouble, that he did not know what it was all about and had planned on packing a revolver in his suitcase, but later had decided not to do so, that his friend was going to marry a man in Los Angeles, and that he would be hard for him to give her up, he would do so.

Sumner swore that on the night Kennedy was killed, Burch was in a rooming house on the Santa Monica street, and that he was blindfolded by the lights on the street and compelled to stop. Sumner fixed the time at about an hour after other testimony showed Kennedy was slain. It was upon Sumner's testimony, as given in Burch's former trial and that of Mrs. Obenchain, in both of which juries disagreed, that the prosecution based its argument that Burch went to the canyon to dispose of the shotgun with which it was charged he killed Kennedy.

Time and again attorneys for the defense read from transcripts, portions of Sumner's testimony as given in the former trial, in an attempt to show discrepancies. He was undergoing cross-examination when court adjourned.

TRACES NEAR SLAYING.

Other witnesses were Otis Wiles, a newspaper reporter, and Thomas Bevan, a resident of Beverly Glen, who told of finding two discharged shotgun shells near the scene of the shooting. Wiles also told of finding automobile tracks on a side road nearby.

R. H. Johnston, a deputy sheriff, told of going to Kennedy's cottage in response to a call from police officers of Beverly Hills, who first received word of the shooting. He told of finding the body on the steps leading up to the cottage with a loaded revolver nearby, and of the gunshot wound in the head. A wedding ring was on Kennedy's finger, he said.

Burch obtained $100 from a local bank the morning following the shooting, according to the testimony of Fred W. Cowlin, its cashier. The money was given to Burch when Dora Burch, of Evanston, Ill., his mother, honored a draft drawn on her for that amount, Cowlin said.

As Dying Father Asked, Cosmetics Case Is Appealed

KNOX, Ark., May 2.—A father's dying wish that the "lip stick" case of his daughter, in which the "rights" of the girl to use cosmetics while attending school are at stake, be carried out to the full extent of the law, is being fulfilled by virtue of the unusual case being appealed to the Arkansas supreme court.

Miss Pearl Fugate, 18, was suspended from the Knox school last September for refusing to attend classes without powder on her face, after the school board had formulated a rule prohibiting girl students from using cosmetics of any kind or wearing short skirts.

The father started a suit to have the rule set aside. He died before a verdict was given, but on his death bed said he wanted the case carried as far as possible so that his daughter's rights could be upheld.

The rule was held to be unjust and unreasonable by Judge W. W. Bandy last April 12, but he refused to issue a writ mandamus to have the school board abrogate the rule on a technicality.

An appeal to the state supreme court was granted.

MOVIES BY RADIO LATEST PREDICTION

BOSTON, May 2.—Motion pictures transmitted by radio are not only possible, but probable, said L. C. Porter of Newark, N. J., president of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers, in an address at the organization's convention here.

"Today pictures are being transmitted by radio," Mr. Porter said. "It is but a step from the transmission of one picture to the transmission of a series of pictures, which is a moving picture." It is, therefore, not only possible, but probable that we shall show in our educational institutions, great educational pictures broadcast by radio.

BORAH CHARGES ISLAND CRUELTY

Idaho Senator Declares America Oppresses and Robs Natives

NEW YORK, May 2.—The public is said to be becoming sadder about insanity. Families are said to feel it a terrible stigma if any of their kin was considered "a little bit off," as the saying went. But thousands of such people now go voluntarily to free hospitals for nervous and mental disorders.

"We have destroyed the governments of Santo Domingo and Haiti," the senator declared. "We have killed their people, not by hundreds, but by thousands. We have substituted for the government a military government. We have driven their best public men into seclusion and put men in their places who agree in advance to do the bidding of the military authorities.

"We have forced, and are forcing upon them large debts and at an exorbitant price for commissions and take-offs and interest. We are now urging them to accept still larger debts, debts which they declare they do not want, do not need, and never will be able to pay.

"We have compelled them to rewrite the constitution so that men of wealth may go in and buy up for a song their fertile lands and exploit the small holders. We have already destroyed the press and have abolished free speech. We have imprisoned and punished those who have been brave enough to protest. These things we have done in the face of our solemn pledge to do the very opposite.

BRING BODY OF N. Y. DEMOCRATS SLAIN WOMAN

Crocker Left No Estate to Fight Over, Attorney for Son Avers

Mrs. Fife, Murdered in Arizona Years Ago, to Be Buried Here.

(Special Dispatch.)

BISBEE, Ariz., May 2.—The body of Mrs. William M. Fife, who was slain by Mexican bandits during September, 1884, in Arizona, was shipped from here Saturday to Ogden, Utah, where internment will take place beside the woman's husband.

Mrs. Sarah J. White, 725 Twenty-third street, Ogden, is a daughter.

Walter Fife, former county assessor of Cochise county, Ariz., and at present a hide buyer for a Los Angeles firm, recently went to the old Chiricahua home ranch, in the Chiricahua mountains and exhumed the body of his mother. He was assisted by an undertaker from Bisbee.

MURDERED AT RANCH

Mr. Fife's mother, Mrs. William M. Fife, was murdered at the ranch in September, 1884, by a Mexican. She and her daughter, Agnes, were at the ranch house alone one afternoon when a Mexican, who had been working around other ranches in that vicinity, came to the ranch and asked for something to eat.

TORTURES CHARGED

Senator Borah also denounced the loans which he said were being forced on Haiti. His denunciation was interrupted by a woman in the back of the packed auditorium, who asked "Why don't they give the money to the soldiers?"

The senator replied, without a moment's hesitation, "Well, I'm willing to give it to some one who wants it, if we are insisting on giving it to some one who does not want it."

Senator Borah then reviewed in detail the various stories of tortures, which, it had been alleged, American marines committed in the islands. He charged that the things our armed forces were doing in Haiti were similar to alleged cruelties committed in India.

SHOOT AT GIRL; THEN KILLS SELF

MOSCOW, Idaho, May 2.—Because Gunhild Asplund, pretty 17-year-old girl, refused repeatedly to become his wife, Dewey Campbell, 21 years of age, after shooting at her from outside her house while she sat playing the piano late Sunday night, hurled a few steps from the house and blew out his brains. The shot at the girl went wild.

Campbell had been forcing his attention upon the Asplund girl for some time and during the last few days his proposals were accompanied by threats of violence if she did not accept. Early Sunday evening Campbell had received his last refusal and he returned with the gun.
